Mr. Douglas,

Like most people, your assertion that I had a sizeable amount of money due from an, as yet, unnamed source, was met with scepticism, to say the least. With the proliferation of scams, especially like those originating in Nigeria, I was not expecting this "too good to be true" event to pan out.

What a pleasant surprise! Not only did you prove that your claim was true but receiving a check for $14,800 was a complete shock. Of course I took it to not only my bank, but also had it investigated by the issuing bank, Wells Fargo. They performed due diligence and contacted the issuing entity and, lo and behold, it was a bonafide instrument. They issued a cashiers check and I was on my way to deposit it in my business account.

Not only did you fulfill your promise, but you did it in a timely manner. I would recommend your service to anyone.

I appreciate your help finding this windfall; it makes for a very Merry Christmas!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to be "JK", enclosed in a circular scribble.
